

Will you run the Streets for Breast Cancer Research?

Are you looking to undertake a challenge this summer? Why not take part in the Streets of Galway 8km Run on 6 August 6 in aid of Breast Cancer Research (formerly NBCRI). This summer evening event takes in the scenic views of Galway City and Salthill promenade and culminates at the Claddagh Basin. So get your running shoes on and join the Breast Cancer Research Team.

Breast Cancer Research is a national charity that raises funds in support of world-class breast cancer research at the National University of Ireland, Galway. Donations to Breast Cancer Research are currently helping the research team at the Lambie Institute for Translational Research advance its work focused on personalised medicine, breast regeneration, and innovative diagnostics and therapeutics.

By funding this research, Breast Cancer Research aims to positively impact future outcomes for breast cancer patients.
