Article 17 of the Directive requires that the elements of the marine strategy are reviewed every 6 years. Article 19 of the Directive requires that consultation with the public and interested parties is undertaken at various stages in the implementation cycle. This important consultation process is part of the first step in the second implementation cycle of the Directive.

The elements of the Directive which are now being consulted on in Ireland are:

- Assessment of the Marine Environment (Article 8)
- Determination of Good Environmental Status (Article 9)
- Establishing Environmental Targets (Article 10)

As this second cycle of the Directive's implementation in Ireland advances there will be separate opportunities for public consultation on the Monitoring Programmes (Article 11) and the Programmes of Measures (Article 13), to fulfil the requirements of the Directive and its amending Directive (2017/845) and Decision (2017/848).

Please outline your views on the various elements of the Directive into the appropriate section of this form below. In addition, please provide separate feedback sheets for each descriptor as appropriate.
