Public Consultation on the National Marine Planning Framework Baseline Report (Privacy Statement)

The Department of Housing, Planning and Local Government is the Government Department responsible for housing and water, for physical and spatial planning, for local government and for weather forecasting.

The Department is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. This privacy statement explains how the Department, as the Data Controller, will process the personal data provided to it in respect of submissions made during public participation on the National Marine Planning Framework (NMPF) Baseline Report; how that information will be used, and what rights you may exercise in relation to your personal data.

Why we are processing your data

The Department will use your data in order to inform the development of Ireland's National Marine Planning Framework. The Department collects your data in the form of any contact details we receive from you in order to create and maintain a list of stakeholders who are interested in marine planning and wish to participate in the development of Ireland's NMPF. All submissions received during the public participation process will be published on the Department website, www.housing.gov.ie. Submissions may be released under the Freedom of Information Act 2014. Personal data, such as contact details, will be redacted before publication. The Department will include your name, or the name of the organisation you represent, in the published submission. If you wish for your name not to appear on the Department's website, please indicate as such in your submission. All submissions received will be subject to the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act and Data Protection legislation. The Department will not process your personal data for any purpose other than that for which it was collected.

Profiling

The Department will not use any personal data collected from you in submissions received as part of this public participation process for the purpose of automated decision making or profiling.

Lawfulness of processing

This processing of your personal data is lawful under Article 6(1)(c) and (e) of the General Data Protection Regulation. The grounds for data processing are established in:

- Article 9 of Directive No. 2014/89/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 July 2014 establishing a framework for maritime spatial planning, which obliges Member States to establish means of public participation by informing all interested parties and by consulting the relevant stakeholders and authorities, and the public concerned, at an early stage in the development of maritime spatial plans;
- Regulation 8 of the European Union (Framework for Maritime Spatial Planning) Regulations 2016 (S.I. No. 352 of 2016);
- Part 5 of the Planning and Development (Amendment) Act 2018.

Security of your personal data

The Department implements appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect your information from unauthorised access. However, despite these efforts, no security measures are perfect or impenetrable, and no method of data transmission can be guaranteed against any interception or other type of misuse. In the event that your personal data is compromised as a result of a breach of security, the Department's Breach Management policy and procedures will be implemented.

Recipients of the data

Personal data may be exchanged with other Government Departments, local authorities, agencies under the aegis of the Department, or other public bodies, in certain circumstances where this is provided for by law.

Cross-border Data Transfers

The Department will not transfer personal data collected in respect of this public participation process to any country or international organisation outside the EU/EEA.

How long will we keep your data?

The Department will only retain your personal data for as long as it is necessary for the purposes for which it was collected and processed. When your personal data is no longer required for this purpose, we destroy or delete it in a secure manner.

In line with legislative and business requirements, the data retention period for your personal data will be in line with legislative and business unit requirements and the National Archives Act 1986 (as amended).

Your rights

The Department's Data Protection Policy, which sets out how we will use your personal data, as well as providing information regarding your rights as a data subject (including details regarding right of access, right to rectification, right to erasure, right to restriction of processing, right to object), is available on our website. The policy is also available in hard copy upon request.

If you consider that your rights have been infringed, you have the right to complain to the Irish Data Protection Commissioner (www.dataprotection.ie), and you have the right to seek a judicial remedy.
