

First of all scrap the old registers as there is a huge discrepancy between the numbers on the registers and the numbers of voting cards that are sent out.

I believed that the census provided the information to update the register.....but there must never have been a cross check otherwise the same people would not have received voting cards at various addresses.

So through the use of technology please update the whole process.